Matthew portrays Jesus as the teacher of the Law, delivering the Sermon on the Mount and offering parables that illuminate the nature of the kingdom.

The Gospel of Mark: The Servant and the Son

Mark highlights Jesus' miracles and exorcisms, emphasizing his power and compassion. The Gospel culminates in the crucifixion and resurrection, presenting Jesus as the ultimate sacrifice and victor over death.

The Gospel of Luke: The Savior and the Sinner

The Gospel of Luke presents Jesus as the universal Savior, extending his grace and mercy to all. Written for a Gentile audience, Luke emphasizes the inclusivity of God's kingdom and the salvation available to all who repent. Luke's Gospel contains the beloved Christmas story and the parables of the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son, highlighting Jesus' compassion and love for the marginalized.

The Gospel of John: The Word and the Witness
