Through the eyes of Libyan revolutionaries and international journalists, you will witness the courage, resilience, and determination of a people rising up against a brutal dictatorship. You will feel the tension in the streets as protesters face off against security forces, the exhilaration of victory as revolutionaries seize control of their cities, and the heartbreak of loss as civilians are caught in the crossfire.

Based on extensive research and interviews with key players, Sandstorm provides a unique and intimate look at the Libyan revolution. It is a story of hope, despair, betrayal, and triumph that will stay with you long after you finish reading.
