

Ski Patrol in Colorado: Images of Modern America

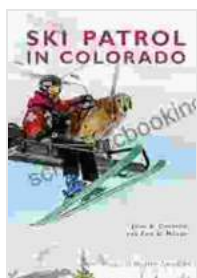

Ski patrollers are the unsung heroes of the ski industry. They are responsible for keeping skiers and snowboarders safe on the mountain, and they often put their own lives at risk to do so. In "Ski Patrol in Colorado:

Images of Modern America," photographer and author John Fielder captures the beauty and danger of ski patrolling through stunning photography and thought-provoking commentary.

The Photographs

Fielder's photographs are both beautiful and haunting. They capture the stunning beauty of the Colorado mountains, as well as the danger that lurks beneath the surface. In one photograph, a ski patroller rescues an injured skier from a snow-covered ravine. In another, a patroller skis down a steep slope, his body language conveying the intensity of the moment.
