A Story of Survival

In 1943, as the Nazi regime tightened its grip on Europe, a group of Jewish refugees fled their homes in search of safety. They traveled through dangerous territory, evading capture and persecution. Finally, they arrived in the remote mountain village of Sant'Anna di Stazzema in Tuscany, Italy.

The villagers of Sant'Anna di Stazzema welcomed the refugees with open arms. They provided them with food, shelter, and protection. The refugees were able to live in relative peace and safety for the remainder of the war.
