Immerse Yourself in the Intriguing Saga of Detective Conan

Prepare to be captivated by the thrilling adventures of Detective Conan, the extraordinary young sleuth who solves complex mysteries with unmatched brilliance. In "Case Closed: Volume 1," renowned manga artist Gosho Aoyama introduces us to the enigmatic world of this pint-sized prodigy.

The Genesis of a Crime-Solving Genius

Shinichi Kudo, a gifted high school detective, becomes a victim of a mysterious poison known as APTX 4869. To his shock, it doesn't kill him; instead, it transforms him into a child. Adopting the alias Conan Edogawa, he embarks on a perilous journey to uncover the truth behind the organization responsible for his transformation.

Intricate Mysteries and Spine-Tingling Suspense

As Conan navigates the complexities of his new life, he finds himself drawn into a series of captivating cases. From a puzzling murder at a prestigious art museum to a suspicious fire at a local school, Conan's razor-sharp intellect and astute observations lead him to uncover the hidden truths that others fail to see.

A Cast of Enigmatic Characters

Alongside Conan, a diverse cast of characters brings the pages of "Case Closed" to life. Ran Mouri, a strong-willed high school girl, becomes Conan's reluctant ally and provides a refreshing balance to his analytical nature. Kogoro Mouri, Ran's father, is a well-known detective whose bumbling demeanor masks a keen eye for detail.

Captivating Artwork that Transports You into the Story

Gosho Aoyama's masterful artwork seamlessly complements the intricate storytelling. Each panel is meticulously rendered, capturing the intensity of the chase, the suspense of the investigations, and the vibrant personalities of the characters. The iconic style of "Case Closed" has captivated generations of readers around the globe.
